Once upon a time there was a king and a queen who were very happy. They had a baby so white as a snow and her face was so red that they called her Snow White. Unfortunately, the queen died and the king married again. But the step mother was evil and she didn't like Snow White. When Snow White grew up, her step mother hated her more and more. Once she asked her magic mirror: „Who is the prettiest from the world?“ The mirror answered: „You are so pretty, my queen, but Snow White is prettier than you.“ She was really angry. She called for a hunter and wanted from him to kill Snow White. The hunter took Snow White into a deep and dark forest and left her there. Snow White was frightened, but soon she found a cottage where seven dwarfs lived. The dwarfs were friendly and loved Snow White. Few days later the step mother noticed about Snow White, that she is alive and lives with seven dwarfs in a forest. She changed herself into an old woman and went to visit her. The step mother sold her poisoned apple and Snow White fell down as dead. The dwarfs left her in a glass chest in the forest. They wanted to see her. One day a prince went around. He saw the beautiful Snow White in her glass chest and kissed her. Snow White woke up. They lived happily ever after.
